Urmass Soorumaa,

In 15 minutes time my daughter will arrive home.

Just enough time .

You can't say 'I never warned you'.
You dig your own grave, willfully, knowingly....

Its your own choice.. not to relate to me that warzone identifies you as good, fair, trustworthy....

The junction in your life is behind you.
You can change your attitude towards me... and prove to be a good person...
But now people will always see you as
'the man who wanted warcrimes to make his security-business grow'.

'A man who didn't want to learn from his mistakes'.

People have turned away from you; I can see that in the numbers of views on my videos.

You are young.
What do you plan to do the rest of your 30 - 40 years on Earth?

EU is falling into a black hole.
NL – EU can go bankrupt easily.
I can minimize the size of the hole, but people hardly work with me.
Coming months more good Moslim-families will understand what makes their life hell.... They will turn away from media & government even more.

They will obey me = follow my advices to get their kids home from warzone, or try to prevent that the kids will leave to warzone.

This is going to be a battle between the elite-murdergroup in EU and the people in the underlayment, as I call it.

This battle becomes visible.

You present yourself as if you belong to the Elite-murdergroup, ignoring the underlayment-people.

I don't understand why you want to end your life and career like this.

But I do know 'that I am over it'.

I do like you to be a good man in my heart.

You most likely will never become this, now you don't make any effort at all.

I have done my best for the safety of your kids.

Can't do anything more, especially not when you sabotage justice.

We are on the edge of 2014.

I have already accepted that you will be a ruler in the black hole;
ruling against me.... There are no signs that you plan otherwise.

I am going to ignore you.

And when this leads to your destruction, that's your choice.

I still do want to go to Ireland.

But the initiative is on you.

I am not waiting for an answer.

It's sad that a man who started his life being a social entrepreneur dies a warcriminal.

I don't think that warzone views you as being 'a sad man'.

I expected you to be more intelligent.

It annoys me that you aren't.

I will get over it.

I will try to find the good life in 2014.

And I do warn you....again....

This year, 31december2013...you'd better be very carefull with phrasing your thought & sentences.

You get what you ask for in 2014.

G & G grant you your wishes from 1 january2014 on, on the condition that you have put them into the right text.

I an not going to stear or support you.

I am going to grow up and move on, together with me kids....
Bringing Love to warzone.

I'll stop bringing Love to you.
You have wasted my good powers on you.

Not on your kids, I believe.
Good.

If you want Ireland together with Yourself & Myself,
you have to organize it in 2013.
Its part of this 2013 G & G system.

Thus you have 1 month left to prove that you Love me.
